Ben H. Tassie and family of 3 Seminary street have moved their household goods to Montpelier, where Mr. Tassie is employed in the City Cash market.

Miss Phoebe Hanson of Nashua, N. H., arrived in the city yesterday to pass a few days as the guest of relatives. She will leave the latter part of the week for Berlin, N. H., for an extended visit.

There will be a meeting of the official board at the Hedding church at 7:30 this evening. A number of important business plans are to be discussed. A full attendance of the members is desired.

An automobile party consisting of W. B. Murray, F. E. Gladding, J. E. Weaver, W. S. Robins and G. H. Douglas left this forenoon for Hanover, N. H., to witness the Dartmouth-Colgate baseball game.

"The Diamond Master," a two-reel Elclair drama taken from the novel by that name by Jacques Futrell, who went to a hero's grave in the Titanic disaster; also other pictures at the Bijou to-day. Adv.

Mrs. Nellie Merrills and her son, Attorney Frederick Merrills, of Hartford, Conn., arrived in the city yesterday, having been called here by the death of Mrs. Merrills' sister, Mrs. E. Alice Averill, of Averill street.

William R. Dewey, a former baggage agent at the Central Vermont station, was a visitor in the city to-day while on his way to Burlington, where he will be employed as a yard brakeman by the Central Vermont railroad.

Among the Barre women who are representing the Barre Woman's club at the annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs at Bellows Falls are Mrs. A. W. Gates and Mrs. E. M. Rose, who left for Bellows Falls this morning.

The baseball game between the second team of the Italian A. C. and the East Barre A. A. terminated with an equalized score at East Barre last night, each team having four tallies to its credit. The game was heated at the close of the seventh inning because of darkness. Both teams scored their runs in the earlier part of the game and for a few innings battled on even terms. One of the features of the game was a spectacular one-handed catch by Peter Maberini, infielder of the Italian team. Clarke pitched for the Italians and gave an excellent account of himself. He was best in pinches. He had an able battery mate in Hooker, the Spaulding player. Doyle pitched for East Barre, dividing honors with Clarke. Both pitchers were hit for the same number of hits—six. The return game will be played on the Italian ball park within another week.

EASTERN STAR CONVENTION.

Is Being Held in Burlington for Two Days.

Burlington, June 3.—The grand chapter of Vermont Order of the Eastern Star will meet to-day and to-morrow in this city, with headquarters at the Hotel Vermont, for the annual meeting. The members of the order began arriving last evening and it is expected that nearly 300 will attend. At present there are 82 subordinate chapters in the state. The committee on credentials will meet this afternoon at the Hotel Vermont from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The work will be exemplified at eight o'clock this evening by a selected corps of officers in the rooms of Washington lodge at the Masonic temple. Following the ritualistic work, an informal reception will be given by the officers and members of Frances E. ### MANY CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS.

Accomplished by Woman's Clubs Throughout Vermont.

Bellows Falls, June 3.—The first session of the 19th meeting of the Vermont State Federation of Women's Clubs was held to-day in the Universalist church with more than 100 delegates and a large number of residents of the town attending. The sessions will continue through to-day and Thursday.

The program last night consisted of an organ recital by Mrs. George P. Lovell of Bellows Falls, invocation by Rev. A. P. Pratt, pastor of the Congregational church, a selection by a quartet and addresses of welcome by Mrs. Edward Kirkland, president of the Bellows Falls Woman's club, and by H. D. Ryder, State Senator Frederick H. Babbitt was unable to give an address of welcome as had been scheduled.

Because of illness, Mrs. Rebecca Fairbanks of St. Johnsbury, first vice-president, was unable to be present, and a note of regret was read by Mrs. George H. Smilie of Montpelier, president of the federation.

In her report of the civil service reform department, of which she is chairman, Mrs. Oliver C. Ashton of Rutland spoke of the lack of interest in this department. She recommended that the women's clubs work for a statewide civil service reform law.

Mrs. Guy Wilson of Bethel, chairman of the civics department, read the report of that committee which showed that the clubs throughout the state have accomplished many things, from cleaning streets to restricting the modern dances in their various communities. She recommended that there be installed civic and moral training schools and that the school buildings be used as social centers for the people.

Mrs. Marguerite Moir of the school of eugenics, Boston, spoke on "Practical Eugenics," describing the ideas of this work in an interesting manner. The program closed with the singing of a selection by a sextet composed of members of the music club of the Bellows Falls Woman's club.

AFTER FEW HOURS' ILLNESS

Charles A. Earl, Middlebury Lawyer, Died Last Evening.

Middlebury, June 3.—Charles A. Earl, a lawyer, died suddenly last evening at 8:30 o'clock. He attended the opening of Addison county court in the morning and complained of feeling not well, and he was taken worse at 4 in the afternoon. He was 55 years of age.

Mr. Earl came to this village about 20 years ago, from Worcester, Mass., where he had held a responsible position with the Norcross brothers, contractors. Ill health forced him to give up his position. He bought a small farm south of this village and after a time regained his health. Then he took up the study of law in the office of Ira H. Laffeur, and was admitted to the bar in 1906. He is survived by his wife, who is in ill health. Mr. Earl was a graduate of the Worcester Polytechnic institute. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias and served as a water commissioner of the village.

SPECIAL HONORS.

Roosevelt to Be Treated in France as a Former Ruler.

Paris, June 3.—The French government decided yesterday to treat Col. Theodore Roosevelt in the same way as it does former rulers.

He will, therefore, be furnished with a special permit authorizing him to pass through the police lines at all times on the way to Madrid to attend the wedding of his son, Kermit, and Miss Belle Wyatt Willard.
